THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMUNICATIONS (SHRI]SANTOSH MOHAN DEV): (a)' The Government is guided by a number of considerations while deciding about the issue of Commemorative/ Special, Postage Stamps. A set of guidelines have been laid down for the purpose. As per Statement {See below). Proposals are also placed before the Philatelic Advisory Committee which functions in the Department to advise the Government on such' matters. The recommendations of the Committee, as also the (Guidelines, are kept in view while deciding about the issue of stamps.

(b) The Guidelines prescribed that the personality should be of a national Or international importance. As such, it is difficult 1to classify them by region or State. However, it is estimated that stamps on]six personalities from Assam have been issued since 1947.

(c) No proposal is presently under consideration in this regard. However, now this question will be treated as proposal and placed before the Philatelic Advisory Committee.

Guidelines for the Issue of Commemorative\Special Postage Stamp from 1981 onwards

1. Proposals may be taken up well in advance, say about a year before the proposed date of issue, to enable proper examination, designing, appro val, announcement, printing and sup ply of stamps as part of a planned programme.

2. A stamp commemorative a living personality may not ordinarily be issued.

3. Not more than one stamp on a personality may be issued, save in ex ceptional cases. In such cases, the pro posals may be considered by the Gov ernment on the recommendations of the Philatelic Advisory Committee.

4. The personalities on whom com memorative stamps are issued may be of national or international importance and the occasion should be ordinarily birth centenary or 10th/25th/100th death anniversary. Commemorative stamps may be issued on the first death anniversary of the personality, only in very exceptional'cases,

5. No stamp may ordinarily be issued commemorating an institution unless the occasion is its centenary.

6. Events of very important national or international character may only b* considered for issue of stamps, occasions of lesser importance may be commemorated by providing special cancellation.

7. Commemorative/special stamps issued in a year may be about 40 and of these stamps on eminent personalities may be about 10.
